

documents pertaining to the nature of business and financial status of the customer as may be required by the bank/FI.

(ii) E-KYC service of Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI) should also be accepted as a valid process for KYC verification under the PML Rules. The information containing demographic details and photographs made available from UIDAI as a result of e-KYC process is to be treated as an 'Officially Valid Document'. Under e-KYC, the UIDAI transfers the data of the individual comprising name, age, gender, and photograph of the individual, electronically to the bank/business correspondents/business facilitators, which may be accepted as valid process for KYC verification. The individual user, however, has to authorize to UIDAI by explicit consent to release her/his identity/address through biometric authentication to the banks/business correspondents/business facilitator. If the prospective customer knows only his/her Aadhaar number, the bank has to print the prospective customer's e-Aadhaar letter in the bank directly from the UIDAI portal; or adopt e-KYC procedure as mentioned above. If the prospective customer carries a copy of the e-Aadhaar downloaded from a place/source elsewhere, still the bank has to print the prospective customer's e-Aadhaar letter in the bank directly from the UIDAI portal or adopt e-KYC procedure as mentioned above or confirm the identity and address of the resident through the authentication service of UIDAI.

(iii) Since introduction is not necessary for opening of accounts under PML Act and Rules or the Reserve Bank's extant instructions, banks/FIs should not insist on introduction for opening of bank accounts.

(iv) Simplified Measures for Proof of Identity:

If an individual customer does not have any of the OVDs (as mentioned at paragraph 2.3 (i) above) as proof of identity, then banks/FIs are allowed to adopt 'Simplified Measures' in respect of 'Low risk' customers, taking into consideration the type of customer, business relationship, nature and value of transactions based on the overall money laundering and terrorist financing risks involved. Accordingly, in respect of low risk category customers, where simplified measures are applied, it would be sufficient to obtain a certified copy of any one of the documents referred to
